My aunt is married to a Scottish man, my uncle Sean. My uncle was born in Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland, and he speaks with a funny Scottish accent. They've got two sons: Peter and Mark. Peter is only eight and Mark is fourteen. Mark and I were born on the same day – on 2nd September 1999 – and we were also in the same class in primary school. Peter loves going to the circus and wants to be a circus acrobat one day. Mark doesn't like going to school, but he can play rugby very well and would like to be a famous rugby player one day. Uncle Sean, who is a bus driver, can play the guitar very well. Aunt Sheila is a primary school teacher but she can also sing and together with her husband she sometimes sings in pubs. When I was a child, they were a famous duo: Sean & Sheila. Today they are still quite popular in local pubs!!

Hi Laura!

How are you? I'm fine! I (1) want to / want tell you about my weekend in London. Last month my parents decided to go to London for three days. We (2) landed / went at Gatwick airport (3) at / on Friday morning and we went back home on Sunday evening. It was a (4) short / long holiday but I enjoyed it a lot. It was amazing!

We stayed at a nice hotel near Piccadilly Circus and in the evening we went out for dinner. On Friday we went to a Thai restaurant and on Saturday we decided to try a French restaurant near the hotel but I didn't like it. I preferred Thai food!

However, we walked a lot around the city, we (5) saw / went sightseeing and visited lots of interesting museums. We also went on the London Eye... oh, that (6) was / were great! There was a wonderful view of the city and from the top we saw the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben, Westminster Abbey and the River Thames, of course.

We also (7) went / visited to Buckingham Palace, where the Queen lives, and we saw the Changing of the Guard. I loved shopping in Oxford Street where I bought (8) some / any souvenirs. I bought a red T-shirt and a blue sweater. They're so cool!

That's all for now.
Write soon and tell me about your last holiday.
Keep in touch!

Love
David

Glossario
